"It is an inspiring thing to know that by virtue of our party membership we are associated with those who resist the attempt of arrogant political power to interfere with the independence and integrity of popular suffrage: who are determined to relieve our countrymen from unjust and unnecessary burdens; who are intent and in part said: upon checking extravagance in public ex-penditures, and who test party purposes by their usefulness in promoting the inter-ests and welfare of all the people of the

"No man believed more implicitly in the political instruction of the people than the great founder of our party, and the first triumph of Democratic principles, under his leadership, was distinctly the result of a campaign of education. So, too, in the light of our last victory, no man who desires Democratic success will deny the supreme importance of a most thorough and systematic presentation to our fellow-citizens of the reasons which support the avowed purposes of our party. Those who sneer at efforts in that direction are our enemies, whether they confront us as consheer at enors in that direction are our enemies, whether they confront us as confessed opponents, or whether they are traitors skulking within our camp. "In the rejoicing which success permits let us remember that the mission of our party is continued warfare. We can not accomplish what we promise to the recoul-accomplish what we promise to the people if we allow ourselves to be diverted from the perils which are still in our way. Blindness to danger or neglect of party organization and discipline are invitations to defeat. We can not win permanent and substantial success by putting aside principle and grasping after temporary expedients. We shall court disaster if we relax industry in commending to the intelliindustry in commending to the intelli industry in commending to the intelli-gence of our countrymen the creed which we profess, and we tempt humiliation, failure and disgrace when we encourage or tolerate those who, claiming fellowship with us, needlessly, and often from the worst of motives, seek to stir up strife and sow discord in the counsels of our party." Boston, April 13.—The Jefferson dinner of the Young Men's Democratic club of Massachusetts was held this evening. Congressman McMillan, of Tennessee, made the principal speech of the evening. He devoted the greater part of his remarks to an arraignment of the last congress, and arraignment of the last congress, laying great stress on its lavish expenditure of money, which he characterized as profilegary and waterwayanger. He sharply profligacy and extravagance. He sharply criticised Speaker Reed's rulings, and crit-icised the McKinley bill severely.

During the past week Wall street has spring into new life and activity. The beginning of April has been expected to bring an improvement in the stock market; but the degree of recovery has exceeded anticipations. The volume of transactions anticipations. The volume of transactions has more than doubled, and prices have advanced almost through the entire list; but the best symptom connected with the revival is that it has come not so much from mete "room" influences as from an important accession of outside buying orders. The stimulus is not of the artificial kind that is sometimes manufactured by professional traders or contraligate asset. by professional traders or capitalists asso-ciated with large corporations; it is mainly due to a simultaneous and natural demand coming from the public at large, and alike for transient and permanent investment.

This welcome change is due to several causes. It is the first clear and decided evidence that public confidence has recovered from the shock imparted by the crisis of last fail. And in that sense it crisis of last fall. And in that sense it means, what many have suspected, that the damage inflicted by the panic was due more to fright than to positive injury or widespread disaster. The mischief was more in the nature of a derangement of the machinery of finance than in any general unsoundness of business at large or any such extension in the last large. any such extensive insolvency as the Baring's suspension revealed among the Euro-pean credit establishments associated with South American interests. The whole trouble lay in a comparatively temporary over-creation of railroad issues and a vio-lent hitch in our currency arrangements, while the general trade of the country was; in a sound and wholesome condition. Cros-ful observers have all along felt that when the public at large came to understand these actual limitations of the bearings of the crisis there would be a prompt and effective recovery of confidence and a general return to normal conditions. All symptoms unite to indicate that we have now reached that turning point.

this, I take to be the main explanation "This, I take to be the main explanation of the marked improvement of tone in the business of the stock exchange. Other causes, however, have co-operated in the same direction. The adjournment of congress has removed the incubus of apprehension arising from the agitation of important questions that have kept the public mind in a state of prolonged tension. The shelving of free coinnee of sion. The shelving of free coinage of silver, the rejection of the southern elections bill, the settlement for a time at least of the tariff agitation, the cessation of ex-orbitant appropriations—the disposal of these unsettling issues is a great relief to these unsettling issues is a great relief to the business of the country and an import-ant contribution to confidence. At the same time, the danger of monetary strin-gency has been greatly mitigated; for, on the one hand, the largely in-creased disbursements of the govern-ment will necessitate a distribution of the immense cash balance hitherto held by the treasure and on the other the operation treasury, and, on the other, the operation of the silver law will add $80,000,000 per year to the active circulation, in addition to the increase arising from our regular production of gold. It is also a factor of production of gold. It is also a factor of no small importance that, in the western states generally the Granger hostility to the railroads shows a marked shatement of its reckless hostility, and in almost every case bills of that character have been defeated. A still more direct stimulant comes from the hopeful agricultural prospects. The winter wheat crop is unusually promising, whilst the weather is favorable to the getting in of the spring crops; and the fact that the outlook for the European wheat crop is discouraging suggests the probability of a good year for the American farmer.

tion that the current market value of securities is much below the average. It is true that the present gross earnings of the rullroads show but moderate gains on those of last year; yet it is to be remembered that the traffic of 1890 was unusually large. It argues well for the general trade of the country that, in spite of the decrease in last year's wheat and corn crops, the earnings should show any increase whatever on those of 1890. It seems therefore to be a reasonable assumption that the current business of the roads would warrant about an average range of prices for railroad seourities; and yet their present value falls very much below the average.

"In view of the factors above reviewed there appears to be a solid basis for an appreciation in the value of securities from this time forward; and the probabilities of the situation fayor a steady buying movement extending up to the fall months: especially should the crop prospects continue to develop as satisfactorily as hitherto.

time to develop as satisfactorily as hith-erto.

"The exports of gold still continue. Un-til the end of the week, the shipments were of a special nature; but on Friday the rates of exchange advanced fully up to the specie-shipping point, in consequence of sales of securities for London account. The total amount of gold shipped and en-gaged for shipment during the week has been close upon $4,000,000. The banks gained about $1,000,000 currency on their exchanges with the sub-treasury and lost $600,000 net on their transactions with the interior."

THE SUGAR COMBINE.

New York, April 13.—Reports have been current for some days on the sugar market, at the foot of Wall street, that a combination had been formed between the sugar trust, all the eastern refiners and the wholesale grocers' association, to acquire complete control of the sugar trade. MURDERED BY INDIANS BLACKFOOT, Idaho, April 13 — Great ex-tement was caused this afternoon by a iscovery that Indians had killed two unknown white emigrants who were camped at a water tank one mile below this piace. Nothing could be learned as to the cause of the tragedy. There were no eye wit-nesses. The bodies of the emigrants were nesses. The bodies of the emigrants were found dead at the tank, and a number of Indians were sneaking to the hills east of here. An uprising is feared. THE CHOCTAWS.

Paris, Tex., April 13.—Among the bills passed by the Choctaw legislature shortly before adjournment was one providing for taking an accurate census of the Choctaw citizens by blood, the rolls, when completed, to be filed with a board composed of the governor, auditor, secretary and treasurer. ROASTED IN A WRECK.

ALBANY, N. Y., Aprill B.—A fatal wreck occurred on the Delaware and Hudson River railroad, between Worcester and Cobleskill today. A fast freight running at a rate of thirty-five miles an hour collided with a gravel train, wrecking the engine of the freight and several box cars. Attached to the gravel train was a car containing five Italians. When the wreck occurred they were thrown headlong into the center of the debris, which took fire. Two of them were killed outright, and three were injured. As the fiames approached the car the cries As the flames approached the car the cries and groans of the imprisoned workmen were heartrending. Owing to the position of the car and the intense heat the rescuers were unable to reach them, and they were obliged to watch them slowly burn to death before their eyes. The names of the Italians are unknown.

The suit is brought by a former conductor of the Frisco read, from whom Nichols is alleged to have extorted large sums of money as a consideration for retaining his position as conductor. A CHINESE LEPER.

PHILADELPHIA. Pa., April 13.—A case of leprosy has just been discovered in a thickly populated section of this city. The leper is Hung Lee, who keeps a Chinese laundry on the east side of Ninth street, above Locust. He has lived there for over six months, and it was not until a few weeks ago that the disease made itself evident. At that time Lee fell sick and although his three assignants would say. although his three assistants would say nothing about it, it was rumored among his customers a few days ago that Hung Lee was sick and that his disease was leprosy. This excited considerable alarm and Officer Addis, of the Nineteenth district, the patroiman of that beat, re-ported the matter on Wednesday at the station house. The board of health was notified, without the fact being generally known. Hung Lee was examined, and the disease was pronounced to be leprosy. At 5 o'clock on Friday moving the ambulance from the Municipal hospital stopped in front of the laundry and the leper was taken to that institution. The bureau of health has not yet decided what shall be done with him. Another Chinese leper, who was sent to the Municipal hospital over a year ago, is near death now of the disease. station house. Yesterday the bill boards throughout the town were covered with glaring posters announcing their coming. Mayor Kraft, seeing the apparently nude forms, felt convinced that such an exposure would shock the moral and Christian members of the community on Christian members of the community on their way to church, and ordered the bill-posters to visit the several bill boards and over the women with sheets of white

Mr. Corbin's name was proposed for membership something more than two years ago by James G. R. Duer, the banker, and was seconded by J. Pierpout Morgan had seconded his name simply increased the seconded his name simply increased the pleasure found by the Union club governors in depositing their blackbairs. It is generally believed in the Union club that Mr. Morgan is the man who first promulgated the idea of the Millionaires' club, which promises to become so formidable a rival.

CANADIAN RECIPROCITY. Washington, April 13 .- Hon. Benjamin

Washington, April 13.—Hon. Benjamin Butterworth, in speaking of Canadian reciprocity, said: "A proper reciprocity with Canada, such as Mr. Blaine proposes, is sure to be a fact some day. Why not let it come gradually instead of making the change radical, as it will be sure to be if it is delayed too long? Yes, I saw that the Canadian commissioners were sent home. I was sorry for it, but I must believe that there were state reasons for the president's action. I cannot believe that he acted in a petulant spirit or intended any snub to Mr. Blaine. There never was anything more unwise than the barrier which we have erected along the Canadian border, and some of these days we will see it swept aside with great benefit to ourselves and to Canada. It will come as sure as fate."
